

In days gone by, there were people who said to us: “You believe in incomprehensible, contradictory and impossible things because we have commanded you to; now then, commit unjust acts because we likewise order you to do so.” Nothing could be more convincing. Certainly, anyone who has the power to make you believe absurdities has the power to make you commit injustices.

— Voltaire, Questions on Miracles (11th Letter), 1765

Drama's extra health & safety steps for this production

Dear Drama Patrons,

You are a valued part of our production. Due to heightened awareness and in addition to our overall campus health and safety measures, we want to share that Jesuit Drama is doing the following:

- Sanitizing all door fixtures before performances, after intermission, and at the end of the evening
- All chairs in our Black Box will receive their customary cleaning, but with a stronger, anti-bacterial solution
- Our complimentary refreshments usually offered in the lobby at intermission will be suspended for this production
- All restroom facilities and drinking fountains in our lobby will be cleaned right before performances
- We will have hand sanitizer, tissues and wipes available in our lobby

Thank you for your support!
