Students are expected to report on time for all exams just as they do for all class meetings. Students with an unexcused absence from a final exam will be assessed a penalty of at least 10% on the final exam or project at the discretion of the Dean of Students. Students with an unexcused or excused absence should plan on staying for conflict testing at 2:00pm on Thursday and Friday.

No student may take an early examination for any reason. Delayed semester examinations require proof of illness or family emergency. Delayed semester exams must be taken during the scheduled make-up testing times. Grades on missing finals after scheduled makeups will be assigned a zero.
